

RESOLUTION No. 4

SERIES 2009

A Resolution Supporting the Gunnison Valley Animal Welfare League and the Gunnison Valley Animal Task Force Efforts to Construct a County-Wide Animal Shelter

WHEREAS, The Gunnison Valley Animal Welfare League (GVAWL) is a non-profit corporation and a State licensed animal rescue organization; and

WHEREAS, the GVAWL serves all of Gunnison County and is staffed entirely by volunteers devoted to animal welfare and animal care; and

WHEREAS, the GVAWL provides placement services for homeless animals, assists the community with spay/neuter costs, and educates the public regarding prevention of animal cruelty; and

WHEREAS, there is currently no permanent animal rescue shelter within Gunnison County; and

WHEREAS, the GVAWL needs a permanent animal shelter in order to more effectively carry out its mission and better serve the needs of the community; and

WHEREAS, the Town of Crested Butte prides itself on being a pet friendly community and recognizes the regional need for a permanent animal shelter;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE TOWN COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF CRESTED BUTTE, COLORADO strongly supports the Gunnison Valley Animal Welfare League and the Gunnison Valley Animal Task Force in their efforts to construct a County wide animal shelter.
